

PACRAT RACE 5/FINAL RESULTS: Mt. Bachelor - 3/31/07

Results Based on a Par Time of 21.29 seconds

Well, winter weather finally hit us, but we were able to get in our last race at Mt. Bachelor. Thanks to all who made the trip. Plus thanks to all who participated in the FWRA Championships and helped PACRAT take first place! (unless any discrepancies are found when results are verified). As for PACRAT, the top team left the door open scoring below 20 points (remember the best 4 of 5 races for each racer counts). The team taking advantage was Rattitudes who scored 70 points and moved from 4th to 1st. The other big mover was Frosted Flakes scoring 50 points and jumping from 13th to 7th. Trophies go to 1st - 4th and medals go to 5th - 8th. Our King and Queen Rat awards go to the racers who participate in at least 4 races and show the most consistent improvement over the year. This year our King Rat is Jeff Kingsbury from Psychothermia and our Queen Rat is Irina Fonareva from Not Yet Named. You will note the correlation between team participation (see stats on page 4) and final standings. Page four shows various factoids for the season. Hope everyone had a great year and we'll see you all next year with a few more of your friends.

Remaining Races/Events: Next Year. Race Results and other information are on-line at www.pacrats.org
